Patwardhan Brothers'
Kokanwadi

is a little piece of heaven situated just 20 km from Ratnagiri on Ratnagiri Ganpatipule Road on a hilltop with a magnificent 180 degree view of Aare-Ware beach. The Konkanwadi is a result of a passion demonstrated by two brothers Shashikant and Prakash Patwardhan. It consists over 100 acres development of mango farm plots of 1 acre each; N. A. Bungalow Plots spread over 30 acres (Phase 1 - 10 acres in operation. Phase 2 under planning) and a cozy resort called "Seawind@Kokanwadi Resort" that offers 7 Double Bedded AC rooms & 6 bedded AC family - room along with 2 Cottages for larger groups.

N. A. Bungalow Plots

After the successful completion of mango farm plots development Patwardhan brothers also developed the N. A. Bungalow plots with all required amenities and facilities.

This cluster of 55 plots is surrounded by mango farms with a beautiful view and backdrop of Arre-Ware beach. Each of these N. A. bungalow plot is fully developed with compound walls and entry gates, internal roads, rainwater drainage and plantation of trees. Walking tracks, playground for children, club house with indoor games, temple, chawadi etc. are few common amenities which are getting developed for members of Kokanwadi. A unique shoppe will be developed for essential goods and Konkan's farm products grown especially from Patwardhan brother's farm as a part of this cluster.

Konkanwadi is the place where you can have your dream abode as holiday destination to get rejuvenated from your demanding and hectic city life.

Konkan

A feast for the nature-lovers!!!

Konkan region, well-known for its natural beauty, is situated at the coastal line of western India, stretched from Raigad to Mangalore.

It has a 720 km long coastline. Maharashtra's Konkan area consists of Raigad, Ratnagiri, Sindhudurg and Thane districts. Konkan is a coastal strip of land bounded by the Sahyadri hills on the east and the Arabian Sea on the west. So you can experience the beauty of sea as well as of mountains.

The coastline is dotted with tall coconut groves, evergreen mango trees, creeks, harbours, hot water springs, caves, temples and the typical Konkani homes.

Along with the great natural beauty, Konkan region boasts of several places of geographical, cultural and architectural interest. There are a number of architectural wonders in the form of sea-forts such as Janjira, Vijaydurg, Suvarndurg, Gopalgad, Kulaba, Sindhudurga and many more...

Places Around Kokanwadi

Aareware Beach – 4 km

Ganpatipule – 12 km

Theba Palace Ratnagiri – 24 km

Pawas – 35 km

Konkani people and culture

Konkani people are generally peace loving, very simple and warm hearted. They are very helpful and friendly towards tourists. They depend mainly upon fishing and farming for their livelihood, but nowadays tourism is one of the upcoming businesses.

Famous in Konkan

Though Konkan is famous for its natural beauty and several places of geographical, cultural and architectural interest, there are some other things for which Konkan always comes first in our mind. These are nothing but the fruits and fishes of Konkan like Hapus or "Alphonso" Mango, Fanas (jackfruit), Karvanda, Jambhul, Kokam, Cashew and variety of fish that are exported from Ratnagiri port.

Konkan being a coastal area, it has its own distinct way of cooking food. Coconut in various forms is liberally used in Konkani cuisine. Mainly fish dishes dominate the Konkani / Malvani cuisine. For non-vegetarians, Konkan is the best place to taste a variety of fishes as well as seafood.

A lot of spices (masalas) are used in the Konkani cuisine, however not all of the cuisine is hot and spicy; The 'Konkanastha Brahmin' style of food is quiet bland yet very tasty and vegetarian too.

Tourism in Konkan

Konkan is gifted with amazing natural beauty and is fast emerging as a favourite tourist destination.

Konkan's greenery, coconut, cashew, mango and jackfruit trees, beautiful virgin beaches, waterfalls, mountains, and lush green valley's definitely provide a rich and pleasant experience for the travelers. Not only beaches but Konkan also offers a huge choice of majestic forts, ancient caves and sacred temples. The best period to visit Konkan is from November to February as the atmosphere is pleasant with less humid conditions.

The entire region of Konkan is well-connected with roads. Rail-connectivity (Konkan Railway) and air-connectivity is also available, but limited to only a few destinations. Overall Konkan is an incredibly beautiful Coastal Paradise. Visit once to have a memory of lifetime.

Kokanwadi's Mango Farms

Kokanwadi's Mango Farms are the signature features of Kokanwadi cluster. It is a result of untiring efforts and passion demonstrated by Patwardhan Brothers. After developing the 40 acres of land initially with plantation of over 5000 Alphonso Mango trees successfully Patwardhan Brothers further developed another 65 acres of land on commercial basis. In all there are 65 plots under 'Kokanwadi Mango Farm Plots' mostly of one acre each. These plots have been developed and sold to people who love Kokan or have their roots in kokan. Patwardhan Brothers offered them a complete package of development, plantation and free maintenance for three years as hassle free investment option. As on today, the investors are enjoying the fruits of their investment.

Although, all the plots are sold out, there are few plots available for resale from the plot owners. These plots can be arranged by Patwardhan Brothers being developers for interested investors.

Features & Development Support

- One acre Plots with government approved layout.
- Developed facilities like accessed road, electricity, water, street lights, etc.
- Plantation of 75 Alphonso Mango Trees per plot
- Guest house for plot owners who come to visit their farms
- 24 hours security of the plot with dog squad for protection from monkeys
- Complete Maintenance of trees on yearly basis with fix maintaining charges.
